PROFILE

I am a passionate Frontend Developer with a strong background in Interaction Design and experience in both frontend and Android development. Through my studies in Interaction Design at Malmö University and Frontend Development at Medieinstitutet, I have developed skills in UX/UI and user-friendly digital development. I have experience working with HTML, CSS, JavaScript, TypeScript, React, Java, and Figma, and I am eager to continue growing as a frontend developer by creating user-centered and thoughtfully designed digital solutions.
